

Good Afternoon,

On Thursday evening, February 14th, we shared the following documents with the Board of Education.

The Budget Development Subcommittee is meeting weekly and sponsored a campus-wide budget forum today. I appreciate those of you who were able to attend and participate. Our next forum will be held on March 19, 2019. Room details and time will come from College Council.

There is a wealth of information and resources available on our budget website:

It is important that you engage in our planning and budget development work so that we can bring out the best thinking, strategic innovations, and Titan Pride.

Thank you for all you do for our students

Brian
