

BDS Information Request: Contingency Budgets

- What is the purpose of contingency budgets?
  - A budget account used to provide for unanticipated items or to hold funds for future distribution. This category may also be used to provide expenditure authority for obligations created but not expended in previous years.