Payer's Request for Identifying Number

Please read the instructions before completing this form.

Under section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code, recipients of dividends, interest, or other payments are required to furnish identifying numbers to payers who must report such payments to the Internal Revenue Service. The identifying number is used by the Internal Revenue Service to provide proper identification and to permit processing of tax returns. The number must be furnished to the payer whether or not the payee is required to file a tax return or is covered by social security. Section 6676 of the Code provides a penalty for failure to furnish an identifying number to a payer required to report such number to the Internal Revenue Service.

1. Enter the identifying number in this box (include all hyphens).
2. Please print or type the exact name and address of the record owner or owners of this account, if not shown below. If the name or address shown is not correct, please make necessary changes. (Underline the name of the person whose number is furnished, if the account is in more than one name.)

Instructions

Proper Identifying Number to Furnish the Payer.—Furnish the identifying number of the record owner of the account. If the account belongs to you as an individual, furnish your social security number. If the account is in more than one name or is not in the name of the actual owner, see the guidelines on the back of this form to determine the proper number to furnish. A trust, estate, corporation, partnership, or tax-exempt organization (such as a church, club, etc.) should furnish its employer identification number, even if there are no employees. A sole proprietorship should furnish the owner's social security number, even if the account is in the trade name of the business.

How to Furnish an Identifying Number to the Payer.

(a) If you have a number and a check is enclosed providing a space to enter your number, write the number, including all hyphens, in the space on the check. The payer will record that number and you do not have to use this form. If the check shows the name of more than one person, underline the name of the person whose number is furnished.

(b) If you have a number and a check is not enclosed or a check is enclosed without a space to enter your number, write the number in the block provided in item 1, and mail this form to the payer. Please be sure your name and address are shown correctly in item 2.

How to Obtain a Number.—If you do not have a number or you do not know your number, you may obtain an application for a number from any local office of the Social Security Administration or Internal Revenue Service. If you have recently applied for an identifying number, wait for the notice of your number. Do not make another application. After you receive notice of your number, enter the number in the block provided in item 1, and mail this form to the payer. Please be sure your name and address are shown correctly in item 2.

Our Letter Dated: March 10, 1972

Gentlemen:

This modifies our letter of the above date in which we stated that you would be treated as an organization which is not a private foundation until the expiration of your advance ruling period.

Based on the information you submitted, we have determined that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, because you are an organization of the type described in section 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi).

Grantors and contributors may rely on this determination until the Internal Revenue Service publishes notice to the contrary. However, a grantor or a contributor may not rely on this determination if he was in part responsible for, or was aware of, the act or failure to act that resulted in your loss of section 509(a)(1) status, or acquired knowledge that the Internal Revenue Service had given notice that you would be removed from classification as a section 509(a)(1) organization.

Sincerely yours,

Michael Sassi
