

Draft

Lane Community College defines mission fulfillment in how the College meets its mission through an acceptable threshold of the four core themes. Each core theme has established a set of objectives and is further refined by a set of indicators of achievement. Within each indicator, each measure has an identified benchmark, (need to set) which represents a minimum threshold of fulfillment.

See examples-
Columbia Gorge

Mission fulfillment is also determined through accomplishments of measures established in the college's strategic directions, and other planning structures (refer to alignment of strategic directions graphic)- how do we incorporate achievement ?